President's Message

Greetings friends of NHABDA:

Summer has finally arrived in New Hampshire. This is what we should've been saying back in June!

What a great time at our last dance on Saturday, July 18th at the Milford Town Hall. Maria Brown and Ray Huard taught a great cha cha lesson. Then during the "DJ break," Paper Moon Dance Center performed some awesome routines that were worthy of 10's in my book. (I always like to see Joe Butera "shake his thing.") Nobody seemed nervous at all. Maria Brown looked beautiful as always. I think everyone enjoyed the ice cream treats.

Thanks also goes out to newcomer deejay Jacqui Dion for some great old tunes that we haven't heard in a long time. She also mixed in some newer songs. Jacqui was dancing up there on the stage while working the music. This was her first time at a NHABDA dance as a DJ. She has attended our dances before so she has a pretty good ear for what we like. Heard some good reports about her so we'll have our music committee try to fit Jacqui into our schedule for next year.

Well, we didn't have any "incidents" this time—no town officials came knocking at our door, no fire alarms, and thankfully, no ambulance! It was relatively quiet. We missed you Henry.

The Outreach Committee held a dinner at T-Bones on Sunday, August 2nd for all its participants. I want to personally thank Joyce for heading up this committee. She does a fine job in getting the word out to the nursing homes that there is a group of performers available to entertain their residents for an hour once a month. This isn't just done by making phone calls. She personally goes out to the nursing homes and scouts each place for us. Remember, this is not always within the Manchester area either. We've traveled past Concord and over to Epsom and out to Jaffrey too. Hugs and kisses to you Joyce! Plans for our next four months and 2010 were discussed at the dinner.

The board of directors will be holding a meeting on Tuesday, August 18th, 6:30 p.m. at the Hannaford compound. If you're interested in seeing what the board does behind the scenes, join us that evening. I have planned to discuss the next NHABDA scholarship recipient and what we have up our sleeves for next year.

Our next dance is on Saturday, August 22nd at the New Hampshire Institute of Art in Manchester. Royal Palace Dance Studio will be teaching a samba lesson before the dance. I'm sure that their showcase will be very entertaining. Trilogy is the band for the evening. The theme for the evening is "Cool & Casual/Surf's Up". Dress is casual but please leave the bathing suits at home! Desserts will probably have a fruit theme. The hall at NHIA is air-conditioned. Due to the size of the space, we must limit the attendance to 100 people so make your reservations EARLY. If you have to change your plans at the last minute please let Betty know... just in case we have a waiting list.

As always,

Cheryl

NHABDA Outreach Committee enjoyed a get-together at T-Bones in Bedford, NH during their summer hiatus. Unable to attend were Ron and Cecilia Jean-Louis.
