President's Message

Greetings friends of NHABDA:

The summer is winding down for all of us. I can't believe it but Sarah already started school on Wednesday, August 26th. It just seemed too early for me. Also — where did the summer go? I have to plan some more camping trips if we get more warm weather.

This past weekend we were camping in Center Ossipee, NH and had to put on the heater in the pop-up at night!

The Cool & Casual Dance, held on August 22nd, was a hit. Royal Palace Dance Studio has not done a lesson and showcase for us in two years and I'm so glad that they could come to this dance.

Miah Trost taught everyone who attended the basics to samba. The best part was the showcase — when his family (wife and two daughters) came out and did the hustle. Then the last dance, fox trot, was so wonderfully done. Actually, I really enjoyed all of the performances. Thanks everyone for a fine job done with the lesson and showcase. Let's hope that you can join us for a return visit next year!

The foursome (Trilogy) played some wonderful tunes for all of us to dance to. We had a good attendance but the dance floor didn't seem crowded at the NHIA. I'm so glad that the air conditioning was working that evening.

A big thanks goes out to Joyce, Lois, Lynne, Maria (and myself) for providing the desserts for the evening. Nothing left to bring home except crumbs! The new floor at NHIA is still looking great. We didn't get a chance to bring David and Lynne Townsend out for a "mini showcase" as we did last year for their anniversary. Happy 29th guys. I'll try to remember for next year.

but at least we can practice what we do know!

Our next dance is to celebrate the beginning of National Ballroom Dance Week (which runs from September 18-27th). It's on Saturday, September 19th at Shepard Auditorium at Pinkerton Academy, Derry, NH. Rico Barr and his Jump 'n Jive Review is our band for the evening. We'll have Tina LaFlam teaching us a swing lesson and then do a showcase at the band's first break. Dress

Well, the Outreach Committee will have to brush off their dance shoes and get ready for the next performance at the Courville at Nashua on Sunday, September 13th. We've had the summer off so freshen up on your moves. I'll see you there. Not sure what Joe and I will remember accordingly for the weather, as you never know — we might have an Indian Summer that day. (Ah, mother nature, we can't keep up with her!) I will also be announcing the recipient of the 2009 NHABDA scholarship at this dance. As always,

Cheryl
