FEBRUARY 2010

VOLUME 23, ISSUE 2

President's Message

Greetings friends of NHABDA:

Whatever Phil the groundhog says this week, it sure feels like Winter isn't going anywhere soon with the cold weather we've been having. Hope you're staying warm and remember to stretch those legs before dancing!

What a great time the Outreach Committee had at Mt. Carmel Healthcare in Manchester, NH on Sunday, January 10th. We had over 40 residents watch us perform. We also had two resident birds that were singing along with the music. One of our performers had a chance to "show off" for her aunt, one of the residents there.

Right after that we had our Annual Board meeting at the Pinkerton Tavern restaurant in Derry. There was a lot of catching up with everyone and then we got down to business. The committees were established. The board of directors elected your new officers as follows: Secretary – Bert Consentino, Treasurer – Irene Lisavich, Vice President – Nancy Lord, and President – Me (8th term and still dancing). I agreed to stay on as President for one more year, but there was a hand shake agreement with a current board member to step into my shoes in 2011.

Our January 16th dance, "Beat the Cold," was well attended. Joe Butera along with his lovely wife, Shelly showed us a terrific swing lesson. At the break he revisited it. Thanks Joe for your dedication to NHABDA and always being there when we need you. He also did a fine job as DJ for the evening. I saw a lot of people making requests. A special raffle was done at this dance and NHABDA and its members were able to raise $300. A check was sent to the American Red Cross with special instructions to be directed to help the orphanages in Haiti. I want to thank my husband, Joe, for donating a framed original photograph. The photo was taken during our annual anniversary camping trip to Southport, Maine. The lucky recipient of the framed photo was Norman Therrien. I also want to thank Henry Makie for donating a huge box of chocolates that was won by Dot Diehl. I especially want to thank ALL of the NHABDA attendees that give us donations during the year for door prizes, contribute to the raffles, and help us out with their time at the dances. What a fine group of friends we all are!

Our next Outreach Committee will be performing at the Ridgewood Center in Bedford, NH on Sunday, February 7th. Now if you have relatives that are in a NH nursing home that we haven't performed at yet, please let us know and Joyce Wilson will try to fit them into our schedule. The one condition is that you'll have to perform with us. (Don't worry, we won't ask you to do a solo!)

The next dance will be held on Saturday, February 20th at Pinkerton Academy, Derry. The theme is "1960's Flashback." I can't wait to see the outfits that everyone will dress up in. (Remember though, the 60s weren't just for "hippies"! Bill Wynn is the DJ for the evening. Paper Moon Dance Center of Merrimack, NH will be teaching a Viennese Waltz and performing the showcase for us. Be there or be square daddy-o!

Peace & love,

Cheryl

P.S.- I found a black fleece zippered jacket after the Jan. dance at Pinkerton. Size large. If you lost it and want me to bring it on Feb. 20th let me know. It's all washed!
