VOLUME 23, ISSUE 7

President's Message

Greetings friends of NHABDA:

What a wonderful evening it was at our last NHABDA dance on Saturday, July 17th at the Milford Town Hall. The tango lesson that was taught by Steve of Arthur Murray Dance Studio, Manchester and their entertaining showcase were fantastic. We had approximately 80 people and they were treated to a cool evening and ice cream sundries. The best part of the evening was having Joe Butera as the DJ. Now understand that he held off his hip replacement surgery so that he could be at our dance. I thank him so much for doing this. (Side note: per his lovely wife, Shelley, the patient is doing fine and has graduated from the walker to crutches. I'll keep you posted on his progress but I hope that Shelley still comes to the dances. I'm sure there are some men who would dance the night away w/her.)

The Outreach Committee is off for the month of August but we did have a wonderful dinner on Sunday, August 1st at T-Bones Restaurant, Bedford, NH. It was great to just sit and chat with everyone and for the organization to show how much their volunteer efforts are appreciated. 23 people who have danced with the Outreach group attended.

This has been a very busy week for the Hannaford household. My mom had surgery on Tuesday, July 27th. She was lucky. They caught the beginning stages of cancer in her jaw. I won't tell you about the gory details but she's doing okay. She just came today and will be staying upstairs with us until she's steady on her feet. Please keep her in your prayers.

On the same day our 18 year old nephew moved in with us. (Long story.) This will be quite a change for us but I'm sure that Joe will be happy to have another male companion in the house with him besides the dog.

The NHABDA board will be having a supper meeting at the Hannaford Compound on Wednesday, August 11th at 6:30 p.m. If you've ever wanted to join the board but didn't know what was involved, please let me know and we'll gladly welcome you at this meeting. We'll be setting up the 2011 schedule and finalizing the Anniversary Ball which is scheduled for the October 16th dance. Stay tuned for the recap which will be announced in the next Footnotes.

Our next dance is Saturday, Aug. 21st at the NHIA (New Hampshire Institute of Art) in Manchester. Yes, the hall is air-conditioned. The band is Trilogy. Portsmouth Ballroom will be teaching a rumba and performing the showcase for us. Please make your reservations early as the hall can only accommodate up to 100 people. If you make reservations and have to change them at the last minute, please let us know so that we can call anyone who might be on the waiting list.

Attn: If you have not paid your 2010 NHABDA dues by June 30th— you will not receive August Footnotes. Download application online, or renew at the dance.

Well, enjoy this summer. It's been hot and humid but we've just had some terrific weather roll in. At least it's not raining every weekend. We've really been enjoying our camping trips.

Nancy Lord, VP, will be stepping into my presidential shoes for the August dance as (you guessed it), Joe and I will be on our family vacation of camping in Maine. Remember to dress tropical casual!

As always,

Cheryl
