OFFICIAL NEWSLETTER OF THE NEW HAMPSHIRE AMATEUR BALLROOM DANCERS ASSOCIATION

The "First Man's" Message

Greetings friends of NHABDA:

Cheryl's no. 1 fan here filling in since she was traveling around Italy and Hungary on business during our Anniversary Ball last month. And what a "ball" we had! Approximately 160 people attended our celebration of the founding of NHABDA. The change from May to October obviously was not a deterrent and I heard pretty favorable comments throughout the night. Having the food be "pot luck" helped us keep the cost of admission the same as a regular dance, but next year we'll try to achieve a better balance between appetizers and desserts! I'm sorry we could not get any founders or past-presidents to attend, but they were all publically acknowledged for having the vision to establish this fine organization 23 years ago. The past and current board members present at the Ball led our attendees for the first dance. Trilogy did a great job all evening and there were many people still dancing right up to the end.

The showcase by Krystal Ballroom was awesome and the "Thriller" performance by the younger dancers was especially entertaining and fun to watch. Thank you to my co-host for the evening, Nancy Lord, who presented a $500. NHABDA Scholarship Award to Julie Lefebvre to continue her lessons in ballroom dance. As Cheryl pointed out last month, we had some wonderful applications this year and it was a very tough decision for the board to choose only one.

The board did a fantastic job setting up, decorating and taking down after the dance. There were "non-board" volunteers who pitched in and made it all go smoothly as well. Thanks Arlene for "getting messy" with me cleaning the chocolate fountain :-) Hope your white dress came out okay.

The Outreach Committee performed at the Pleasant View Nursing Home in Concord on October 10th and were very warmly received. We only had 5 couples to perform that day so we all had quite a workout! It was a great crowd though and we appreciated their enthusiasm.

The next Outreach is on Sunday, Nov. 14th at 2:00 at Bel Air Nursing Home in Goffstown, NH. It will be our first time there. Any one interested in participating should contact Joyce Wilson.

Our next dance and last one for 2010 is going to be on Saturday, Nov. 20th at Pinkerton Academy, Derry. Please bring non-perishable food items for the NH Food Bank. We will have Ron & Tina LaFlam teach a cha cha lesson before the dance and their studio (all the way from Gloucester, MA) will perform the showcase. Rico Barr and his band will provide your musical entertainment. At the second break we will have our annual elections for new Board members. If you would like to be a "do-er" and be more involved, this is your chance to really make a difference.

You might be wondering, just what are the responsibilities of a NHABDA Board member? It's not hard because we have such a great group who work together to put on these dances that you all enjoy attending. They don't just happen by themselves, but many hands make light work. We meet only a couple times a year and they're pretty informal with great food and lively discussions. We have committee members that book the bands, halls, lessons and showcases. There are folks that come early and set up and there are others who don't mind staying to the end to clean up (takes about 20 min). As you probably know we have a scholarship committee and an outreach committee (they perform at the nursing homes once a month). There's something for everyone and you even get free admission to regular NHABDA dances!

All we ask for is a small commitment of your time. Traditionally, a board member is elected for a 3-year term, but we have been flexible about that. So if you think yourself, or someone you know, would make a good candidate please let us know before the Nov. 20th dance and we'll add the name(s) to the ballot. Our phone numbers are listed in the column to the left.

Lastly, invoices should be arriving in your mail soon to renew your membership in NHABDA. As an active member you get reduced admissions to dances, Footnotes mailed to your home, and you become a supporter of the only non-profit organization in NH dedicated to the promotion of amateur ballroom dancing. For your convenience, there is also a membership application below.

Until next time,

Joe
