PRESIDENT’S MESSAGE

Happy New Year!

My family had a wonderful Christmas! Our daughter from Virginia was able to be here for Christmas and of course our youngest, who lives in NH was here. I love snow, so I am happy for the white that I see outside. The white makes me feel more festive and just happy! As I was driving back from the Cape after the second storm, it was like I was driving through a winter wonderland. The trees were absolutely beautiful and the roads were all clear (always a plus). Thank you to everyone for the past 2 years as I served you as NHABDA’s President. It was a joy to work with the board and various committee members. I enjoyed meeting so many new people as part of my job. As I have said in the past, with wonderful people to share the responsibilities, it makes the President’s job very easy.

We had a wonderful “Holiday” dance at Pinkerton Academy with about 118 dancers. The room was quite festive with the decorations and personal attire. I want to thank Virgie Beacom for taking over the decorations from Denise Kelly. Also, thank you to all who brought food to share with the dancers. It is much appreciated. We were pleased to have Rico Barr, who provided our music. Thank you! Many dancers came up to me to let me know that they were enjoying the music.

Paper Moon Dance Center provided a swing lesson and a wonderful showcase. Thank you to the performers: Rumba – Fred Dufault & Maria Brown; Cha Cha – Tracy DiJulia & Ray Huard; Samba Formation – Fred Dufault, Ryan Sylvia, Derek Mullen, Andy Harthcock, Ron Quill, Web Dove, Eoin McGrotty, Jeff Rifkin, Tracy DiJulia, Monica Dove, Brittany Marryott, AnnMarie Lidman, Elizabeth Lidman, Mary Lidman, Anna Schechinger, & Maria Brown.

Outreach was at the VA Hospital with 7 couples dancing. There were about 18 residents, visitors and staff in attendance to watch the show. Because of the holiday season, many of the residents had gone home to be with family. Next Outreach will be Sunday, January 13th at the Hillsborough County Nursing Home in Goffstown. Contact Joyce Wilson if you are at all interested in participating in Outreach. She will explain what happens and what you will need to do.

NHABDA's next dance will be "Baby It's Cold Outside" on January 19th, with music by Dave Burbank Orchestra. At this time we are still in the process of getting someone to teach a lesson. Please check the website prior to the January 19th dance to make sure we will be having a lesson at 6:45 or for snow cancellation! Please be patient as we transition to new board members.

Lois Ireland, who has been a board member of NHABDA for the past 6 years, and has organized the showcases and lessons during that time, has been very sick. After being in the hospital for over a month, she is finally home continuing to recuperate. We ask that you keep her in your thoughts and prayers as she focuses on getting better.

I have so many people to thank during this time as President. I need to thank my board members for their diligence and hard work to keep the NHABDA dances as wonderful as they have been. Thank you, Cheryl and Joe Hannaford, for being my mentors. Joe has been like a V.P. for the past year and has been a wonderful help to me. I could not have done the job without his input; Betty Ashooh for organizing the reservations and seating; Denise Kelly for the ability to come up with wonderful decorating ideas for the dances; Gerry Ouellette for organizing all of the music, Lois Ireland for organizing the showcases and lessons; Joe & Lois Ireland, Maria & Bill Vanderhoof for the scholarship fund; Irene Lisavich for keeping track of the treasury; Mary Pat Smith for keeping track of the meetings; Anthony Bolduc & Ginette Lawrence for making sure our thirst is quenched and Virgie Beacom for making sure our beverages remain cold; Nancy Lord (for her past V.P. service) and Paul Sullivan & Kathy and John Carbonello for making the coffee; Joyce for keeping Outreach organized; Joe for keeping Footnotes up and running; and Keith Johnson for maintaining our website. A special thank you from the heart to my dear husband David, for his support both at home and at the dances.

I would like to leave you with a couple of quotes that I find uplifting. As I look back at the last two years, I look back with lots of happiness. I wish for all of you to be happy and enjoy life. Please realize as you come to the dances, that these are put together for all of us to have fun. So, before you criticize, remember positive thoughts spread forth positive thoughts...
