PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Greetings friends of NHABDA—
Are we sick of Winter yet? We have certainly had more than our share of cold and snow as well as cancellations this year. Guess we New Englanders have been spoiled the past couple of years. Happily, Spring is coming in a few weeks. We got a taste of it last Saturday.

I was so looking forward to the February Sweethearts Dance but once again the weather didn't cooperate. It's not an easy decision to cancel a dance. We rely on the forecast and keep in mind that some people travel a fair distance. As always the safety of our members, performers and the band comes first.

I was especially sorry to miss the showcases we had planned by Paper Moon. I heard they did some fabulous performances at the Eastern Dance sport competition.

We are looking forward to our next "Erin go Bragh" dance on Saturday, March 15th. TrilogY will be providing the music for the evening and Royal Palace is scheduled to teach a Salsa Lesson at 6:45 before the dance. They also have some fun performances to showcase during the break. Hope you'll all get into the St. Paddy's day spirit and wear something green.

On Sunday, February 9th the Outreach group danced to just under 30 residents, visitors and staff at St. Theresa's

The next Outreach is scheduled for Sunday, March 9th at Harris Hill Nursing Home, 20 Maitland Street in Concord. If you want to help put a smile on the face of an elderly resident please contact Joyce Wilson and let her know you are interested.

NHABDA is sponsoring a dance seminar coming up on Saturday, April 5th. Norman Thibeault of Fred Astaire Studios in Worcester is returning to teach patterns in both Continuity Style Foxtrot and Intermediate Mambo at the Old Bedford Town Hall. Please refer to the enclosed flyer for all the details and register early.

Hope to see you all at the next dance and think Spring!

Eileen Morin

It was a special moment for Past-President Cheryl Hannaford and husband Joe, who got to dance before Cheryl's mom and the other residents at St. Theresa's. Jean did plenty of "advance promotion" telling all her friends and the staff they must not miss the ballroom dance group!
