PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Greetings friends of NHABDA—

It's been a while since we last danced at Pinkerton and it was great to see so many faces at our "Erin Go Bragh" Dance in March. As always, we enjoyed listening and dancing to Trilogy. Miah Trost from Royal Palace Dance Studio taught a high energy Salsa pattern. Later, he and his students showcased their talents. It was a first time performance for one of the dancers. Their fun Foxtrot was a prelude to their performance for the "Dancing with the Local Stars Benefit!"

Thank you Miah, Kathy, Lauren and Heidi!

The Board of Directors were introduced during the break. If you haven't met some of these individuals, I invite you to introduce yourselves. We hope you will feel free to share your thoughts and comments with us.

I would like to thank our dance hosts and everyone else who helped throughout the evening. The tables looked festively green thanks to Virgie Beacom and her crew and there was a nice array of desserts and snacks. Thanks to all those who brought yummy snacks to share and to those who donated the door prizes.

Outreach did some last minute rescheduling in March. They originally planned to dance at Harris Hill in Concord. However, when there was a last minute cancellation Joyce contacted Courville of Manchester who was more than happy to oblige. 7 couples danced for a group of about 25 residents, guests, and staff. Many clapped, swayed to the music and sang along. 7 or 8 residents were up dancing with our performers at the end. One woman who is 100 years old didn't want them to leave she enjoyed it so much.

The next Outreach is scheduled for Sunday April 6th at Merrimack County Nursing Home in Boscawen. I've heard they have a great dance floor and our group is well received there. Please let Joyce Wilson know if you plan to attend.

Tony Bolduc dances with a resident who was described by a nurse as "one who didn't socialize or participate in any activities." The Outreach performers must have made an impression because she got up on her own to dance!

Don't forget to sign up for the NHABDA Dance Seminar coming up on Saturday, April 5th with Norman Thibeault of Fred Astaire Studios. He will be teaching patterns in both Continuity Style Foxtrot and Intermediate Mambo. Please refer to the enclosed flyer for all the details and make your reservations. You must pre-register so we can plan for how many will be there.

Please join us for our next event, "Dancing in the Rain" Dance, on Saturday April 12th at Pinkerton. Mr.

Jonathan will be spinning tunes for us and Arthur Murray Dance Studio of Manchester will be teaching a Tango Lesson at 6:45 p.m. They will also be entertaining us later in the evening with a showcase.

According to the calendar it is supposed to be Spring, but with weather in the "teens" it certainly doesn't feel that way. Isn't March supposed to "come in like a lion and go out like a lamb"? We are looking forward to the nicer weather, getting some fresh air and seeing the trees and flowers bloom.

Think warm thoughts!

Eileen Morin
