PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Greetings friends of NHABDA—

Our "Let it Snow Dance" in January might have been overshadowed by the Patriots' playoff game. However, a football game doesn't necessarily stop those who love to dance; especially if you have a DVR and can watch the game later without the commercials.

We all had a great time dancing to music provided by Alpha Beats. Before the dance, Theo Martinez taught us a fun Mambo lesson. Then during the break, Theo and his partner Eva Luo danced a wonderful Mambo. You may have seen Theo around. He is an independent and energetic dance instructor who loves to perform and teaches locally at area studios. He is best reached through Facebook.

Thanks to all who helped make the evening run smoothly and to those who brought food, assisted with setup and cleanup and who donated door prizes. Special thanks to Diane & Buzz Nine who helped speed up the check-in line by processing 2016 membership applications at the door.

On February 20, we will be hosting a "Mardi Gras" Dance at Pinkerton. Mr. Jonathan will be providing the music and Paper Moon Dance Studio of Merrimack, NH will be showcasing their talents during the break. There will be a combination of single and group numbers that are sure to entertain. Maria and Ray of Paper Moon will be teaching a Foxtrot lesson before the dance.

We are still working on this year's schedule and will add information to the website when finalized. Please check the website for the most up-to-date information regarding music, lessons, and showcases as well as for dance cancellations in case of inclement weather.

January's Outreach was originally scheduled at Maple Leaf Nursing Home in Manchester. After finding they were in lockdown due to illness, Joyce Wilson arranged for Outreach to dance at Manor at Birch Hill Terrace on the Manchester/Hooksett line where they were well received. The next Outreach is Sunday, February 14 at Villa Crest, on Hanover Street in Manchester.

tions to the next dance. It is through your generosity and support that we are able to continue our programming.

The BOD has been busy in January. We held our annual meeting on January 9th to review the highlights of 2015

We thank those who have already renewed their memberships for 2016. If you have not yet done so, please mail it soon or bring your completed applica-and begin 2016 business. We have some fun events scheduled and we hope you will join us throughout the year.

Warmest regards,

Eileen
