A MESSAGE FROM THE BOARD

by John Carbonello —

The day after St. Patrick’s Day, Saturday March 18, NHABDA held its “Emerald Ball”. The Dave Burbank Orchestra played for one of the largest groups to attend a NHABDA event in recent years. It was great to set up additional tables and cover them with green tablecloths. We noticed a lot of new faces and much “wearing of the green” by attendees.

The UNH student-run swing dance club taught the lesson and performed the showcase. It is not uncommon for the dance group who teaches the lesson to also perform a showcase. However, the Hepcats used some of the moves they taught in the lesson in their showcase performance. They definitely have the moves.

The Hepcats brought more than a lesson and showcase, they brought enthusiasm and energy. They obviously can swing, but who knew they also enjoyed ballroom dancing? They stayed late, danced with NHABDA members and inspired all of us.

Six years ago I attended my first NHABDA board meeting. It was here that I met Lois and Joe Ireland. They had already been on the board for years and they helped me understand the work, preparation and attention to details that goes into making it all happen. They had been responsible for scheduling the dance studios to teach the lessons and perform the showcases.

Lois had a passion for the NHABDA scholarship program. She prepared the scholarship application, delivered them to the dance studios, followed up the process, collected and reviewed the applications and helped select the winner.

The board decided to award this year’s scholarship to the Hepcats. Hard to find a group more dedicated to promoting dancing. They hold dances throughout the year and provide free lessons to the UNH students, faculty and the surrounding community.

We were touched when Joe Ireland approached us with a request to match the NHABDA scholarship, dollar continued on pg. 2

for dollar, in memory of his late wife, Lois.

Our Outreach group performed at Ledgewood Bay in Milford on Sunday, March 12. Seven couples danced to an audience of 22 residents. Always a pleasure when quite a few of the residents get up and dance with us at the end of our performance.

Our next Outreach event is Sunday, April 2 at Nashua Crossings, Nashua. This will be their first time there.

Is dance a sport? According to Vince Lombardi, "Dance is a contact sport — (football is a collision sport)."

Dance Etiquette Reminder: (Dance Vision) When things go wrong on the dance floor always apologize. It does not matter who is at fault. If you are moving more slowly than other dancers keep to the center of the floor.

If you are engaged in conversation move off the dance floor.

This concludes the last board message of Winter. Time to turn to the signs of Spring: more joggers on the road, more cyclists on the bike paths, more baseball at Fenway Park and more ball-room dancing at Pinkerton.

The "April Showers Dance" will be held at Pinkerton Academy on Saturday, April 22. Let's Dance Studio will teach a Tango lesson at 6:45 and later perform a showcase. NHABDA is excited to present for the first time, The Jim Zaroulis Band.

Our Dance Seminar with Norman Thibeault has been rescheduled to Saturday, April 29 (see enclosed flyer).

NHABDA lost a dear friend when Gene Freyberger passed away on March 26. Our condolences to his wife Cindy and family.
